

OU GIS Day 2012 Student Poster Judging Scorecard

Poster Number _____

Category Undergraduate ☐ Graduate ☐

Author(s) _____

Brief Title _____

Rating Scale

Outstanding	Excellent	Good	Fair	Inadequate	Missing/None
5	4	3	2	1	0

	Score
A. Visual Effectiveness: Impact, Clarity and Aesthetics Is the poster readable, information presented clearly, tables and graphs labeled properly and legible, good use of color and white space? Is it visually engaging?	_____
B. Research Value: Intellectual Contribution Intellectual contribution of research, novel or creative use of geospatial technologies (global positioning system, remote sensing or geographical information system). Useful and exciting application possibilities?	_____
C. Research Methods: Research Formulation Is the research hypothesis and research method sound and clearly presented in title, abstract and other text?	_____
D. Application of Data: Conclusions Do the conclusions follow logically from the data presented? Was there a sufficient level of effort to gather and/or analyze data?	_____
E. Presenter: Understanding and Communication Does the presenter understand the topic, pros and cons of approach, able to clearly describe research, able to answer questions logically, have a professional demeanor?	_____
Total	=====

Numerical ties to be decided by a consultation among judges.